

COMMUNITY COVENANT

Pledge...

We, the community members of River Heights City, Utah, are committed to building strong communities.
Therefore:

We recognize the commitment and sacrifices that our members of the military and their families make for us each day.

We recognize that our military members find strength through their families and those families find strength through the community of which they are a part.

We recognize that the strength of the community comes from each individual in it.

Therefore, let it be known that River Heights City is committed to:

Building partnerships that support the strength, resilience and readiness of our military members and their families.

Assisting in the implementation of the Armed Forces Family Covenant Program by identifying and providing support for Active Duty and Reserve military members as well as all veteran's of military service and their families within our community.

We love, appreciate and cherish our veterans, service members and their families.

this Twenty Seventh day of November, Two Thousand and Twelve.

---

Mayor William Baker

---

Councilwoman Kathryn Hadfield

---

Councilman Blake Wright

---

Councilman Doug Clausen

---

Councilwoman Dixie Wilson

---

Councilman Richard Okelberry